To Correspondents.

WE are obliged to Peregrinus for his communication of the letter of the Bishop of Gap, referred to in our last. We have written to the Vicar-General of Grenoble on the subject, and cannot do better than insert his reply. "L'Evêque de Gap publia en octobre 1850 une circulaire à ses curés, assez inconvenante pour son collègue de Grenoble, mais cependant pas assez explicite contre le fait de la Salette, dont il disait ne pouvoir, ne devoir, ne vouloir s'occuper ; ce qui voulait dire, que le fait ne le regardant pas, il ne voulait pas s'en occuper. Or cette année-ci même il a fait verbalement des excuses à Mgr. de Grenoble, et a prétendu que par sa circulaire il n'avait pas voulu attaquer le fait lui-même. Dans le fond, il ne croit pas ou croit peu à la Salette. Au reste, l'incrédulité de deux Prélats—(who the second is, we do not know ; our correspondent does not mention)—qui n'ont pas étudié le fait, n'a rien qui doive surprendre. Ni l'un ni l'autre n'ont donné par écrit les raisons de leur incrédulité." This circumstance presents a very striking contrast between Mons. Depéry of Gap on the one hand, and Mons. Dupanloup of Orleans on the other, whose letter Mr. Northcote has published. With regard to the second point in the Bishop of Gap's letter, Peregrinus will observe that Mr. Northcote's pamphlet does not sin against the canon there laid down ; but, on the contrary, most scrupulously confines itself to such cures as have been constatées par des enquêtes scrupuleuses et prudentes de la part de l'autorité ecclésiastique.

We must apologise to our subscribers for being obliged to postpone the Title and Index of Vol. X. We have given an extra half-sheet with the present Number, but have not been able even by this means to find room for it. It shall be given without fail in our next.

Correspondents who require answers in private are requested to send their complete address, a precaution not always observed.

We cannot undertake to return rejected communications.

All communications must be postpaid. Communications respecting Advertisements must be addressed to the publishers, Messrs. BURNS and LAMBERT ; but communications intended for the Editor himself should be addressed to the care of Mr. READER, 9 Park Street, Bristol.
